

Dearest Pine Ridge resident:

On behalf of the entire Pine Ridge Civic Association, please accept this invitation for you join us at our monthly meetings.

If you don't know what the Civic Association is or why you'd want to join, here's a little bit about us. We are a non-political organization, completely separate from the Pine Ridge Property Owners Association (PRPOA). We are interested in the civic, cultural, and social welfare of Pine Ridge and its residents. Each month we bring in a speaker from the local community. We've hosted several Citrus County government officials to provide updates and insight into current events in our area, health and safety experts, philanthropic and humanitarian organizations, local clubs and more. Our members have donated an actual truckload of supplies to the Humane Society, regularly sponsor an Angel Tree for gifts to an abuse shelter, and donate money to support several local causes.

All of this and more for only $15 a year, per household.

On the fun and games side, we sponsor a monthly dinner with 5 sets of Bingo, a games night every Friday, and we always end the year on a high note with a catered dinner, set of Bingo games, and the charming company of your Pine Ridge neighbors. Have you noticed the Adopt-A-Highway signs on Pine Ridge Boulevard near the Hwy 486 entrance and at Cavalry Ln? Yes, that's the Pine Ridge Civic Association as well.

We meet the 2nd Monday of the month at 7pm except for July and August when we're on summer break. Bingo is usually the 3rd Saturday at 6pm. Games night is every Friday at 7pm. Our events are open to all Pine Ridge residents and guests. For additional information including past newsletters and our calendar of events, go to <https://civic.pineridgeassn.com> or send an email to president@civic.pineridgeassn.com. Hope to see you soon.

Pine Ridge Civic Association President (since 2017)
